

2024

TrailLink Unlimited 🔯

Guides 🕫 🤝

A.J. Hoyt Memorial Trail

Montana

The A.J. Hoyt Memorial Trail can be found in Frenchtown, a small community about 16 miles northwest of downtown Missoula. The

The A.J. Hoyt Memorial Trail can be found in Frenchtown, a small community about 16 miles northwest of downtown Missoula. The trail parallels the Frenchtown Frontage Road for just over 5 miles and its flat, asphalt surface makes for an easy walk or ride for users of all ages. The trail passes by a mix of homes and ranches, and is close to the Frenchtown Pond State Park, a favorite spot for water-based activities like swimming, kayaking, paddleboarding and snorkeling.

States: Montana Counties: Missoula Length: 5.3miles

Trail end points: Frenchtown Frontage Road and Mill Creek Road to Frenchtown Frontage

Road and Huson Road Trail surfaces: Asphalt

Trail category: Greenway/Non-RT

Trail activities: Bike, Inline

Skating, Wheelchair Accessible, Walking

Parking & Trail Access

Park at the Frenchtown Pond State Park (18401 Frenchtown Frontage Road); you can also find restrooms there.

A.J. Hoyt Memorial Trail Montana

