The Harold E. Ruppel sits in a perfect location to provide opportunities for outdoor recreation and non-motorized

The Harold E. Ruppel sits in a perfect location to provide opportunities for outdoor recreation and non-motorized transportation for residents of Savoy Village, in the Champaign-Urbana metro area. It runs for nearly two miles in the Prospect Avenue corridor, which is lined with single- and multi-family residential developments. The trail begins just south of the Savoy Recreation Center on Graham Drive and heads north to Windsor Road.

There is a tiny park midway along the trail, Friendship Crossing, at the corner of Prospect Avenue and Curtis Road, where you can find a gazebo, benches, a water fountain and a bike rack.
