The Camden Regional Trail is one on Lyon County's treasured recreational spaces, a 14-mile long multiuse trail linking residents

The Camden Regional Trail is one on Lyon County's treasured recreational spaces, a 14-mile long multiuse trail linking residents to the outdoors in a safe and enjoyable way. The paved path runs from the Southwest Minnesota State University campus, through the city of Marshall and down along State Route 23 to Camden State Park. The trail is undulating but generally slopes upwards towards the state park and is downhill if you are heading into Marshall.
