

2024

TrailLink Unlimited

Guides

Downtown
Greenway
North Carolina

Downtown Greenway North Carolina

The Downtown Greenway is a paved multiuse trails winding through Greensboro, North Carolina. The trail is close to 1.5 miles

The Downtown Greenway is a paved multiuse trails winding through Greensboro, North Carolina. The trail is close to 1.5 miles long, beginning on Spring Garden Street, with a landscaped buffer between the trail and Freeman Street. The trail starts heading south, passing under railroad tracks, before turning east to Martin Luther King Drive. The trail is suitable for walking, biking, jogging, dog-walking and rollerblading and connects residential and commercial areas.

Downtown Greenway

North Carolina

States: North Carolina

Counties: Guilford

Length: 1.5miles

Trail end points: MLK Jr. Drive to Spring
Garden Street

Trail surfaces: Asphalt, Concrete

Trail category: Greenway/Non-RT

Trail activities: Bike, Inline
Skating, Wheelchair Accessible, Walking

Parking & Trail Access

There's parking for the trail at Morehead Park (475 Spring Garden Street). You can also park on the lot at the intersection of Eugene Street and Bragg Street.

