

2024

TrailLink Unlimited

Guides

Yoholo Micco,
The Creek
Indian Trail
Alabama

Yoholo Micco, The Creek Indian Trail

Alabama

Nature-lovers, birdwatchers and history buffs will enjoy the many hidden gems this trail has to offer, including a waterfall (hidden off

Nature-lovers, birdwatchers and history buffs will enjoy the many hidden gems this trail has to offer, including a waterfall (hidden off of side trail), nesting bald eagles, an old cemetery (another side trail) and a wall built more than 100 years ago. The trail—formerly known as the Eufaula Rail-Trail—boasts splendid views of Lake Eufaula.

Phase 2 of the trail was completed in 2010 and includes a path over the old trestle across the lake, heading north to Old Creek Town, the former site of a Creek Indian village. The trail begins in downtown EuFaula, in front of the Eufaula/Barbour County Chamber of Commerce.

Yoholo Micco, The Creek Indian Trail

Alabama

States: Alabama

Counties: Barbour

Length: 3.2miles

Trail end points: Eufaula-Barbour County
Chamber of Commerce on East Broad Street
(Eufaula) to Old Creek Town

Trail surfaces: Asphalt

Trail category: Rail-Trail

Trail activities: Bike,Inline
Skating,Fishing,Wheelchair
Accessible,Walking

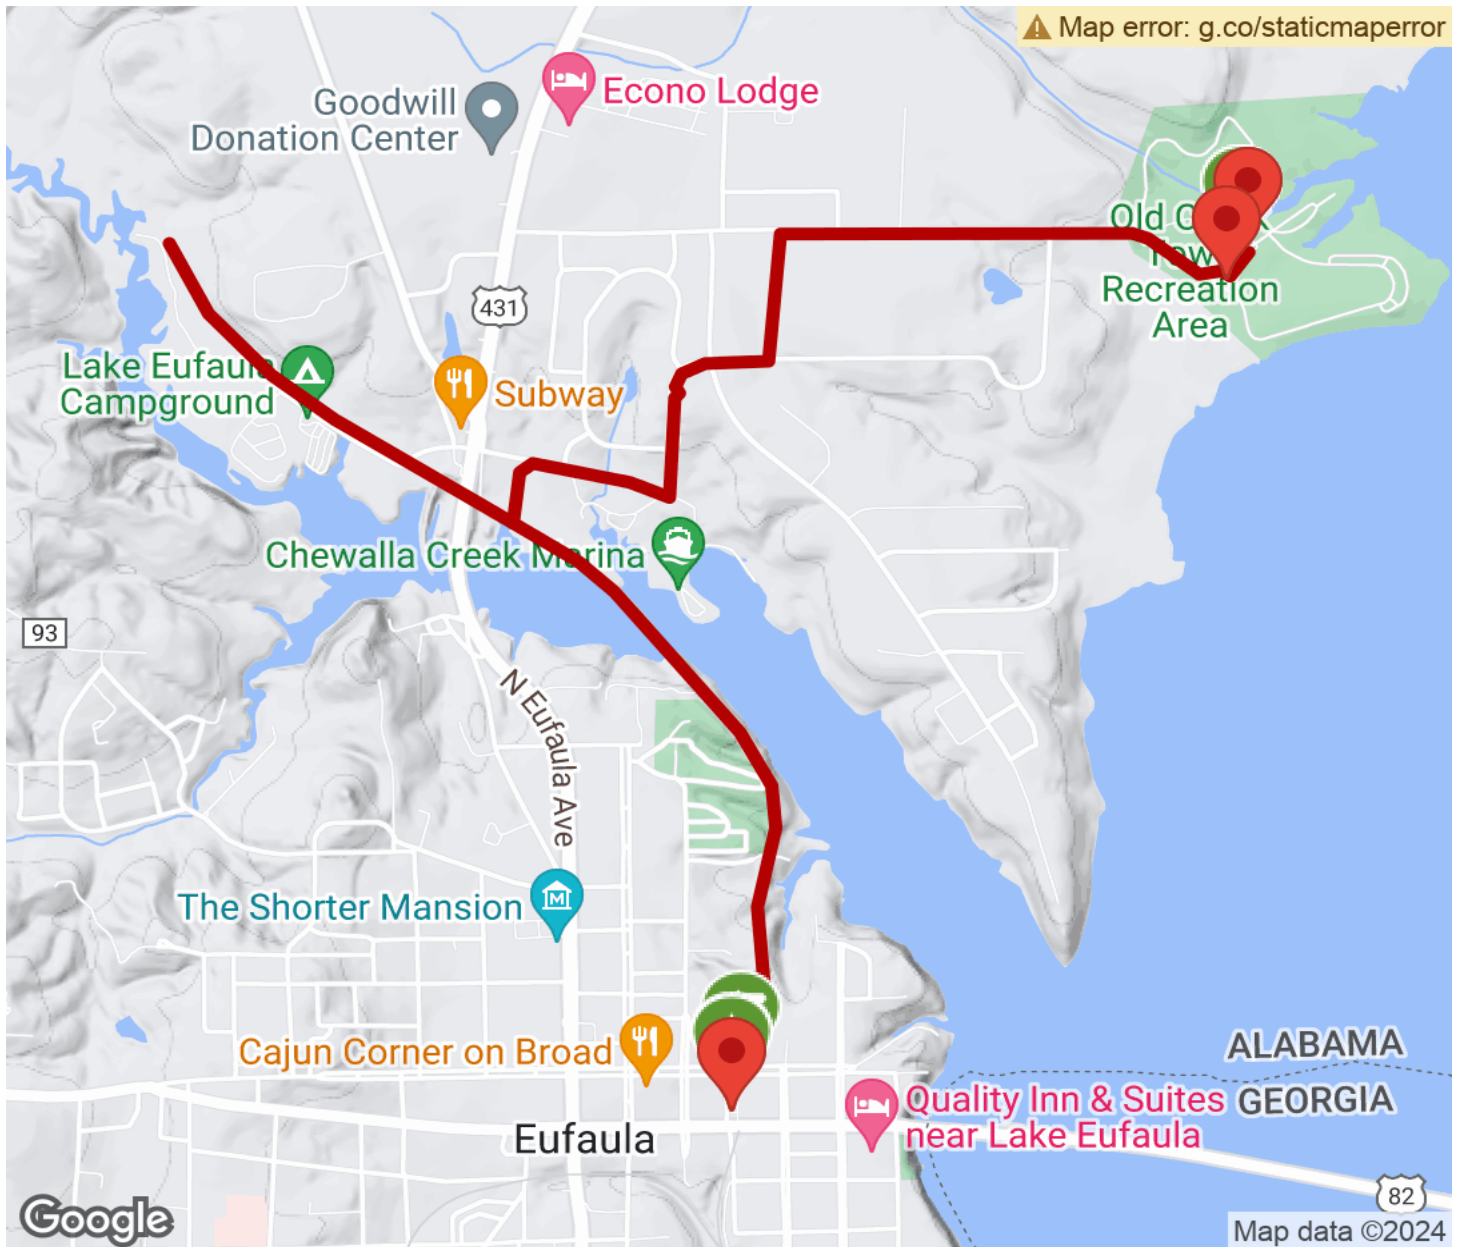

Parking & Trail Access

Parking is available at the Chamber of Commerce, 333 E. Broad St., and at the Old Creek Town Recreation Area on Lake Drive.

Yoholo Micco, The Creek Indian Trail

Alabama

Trailhead

Restroom

Parking

Water Fountain

Tunnel