

2024

TrailLink Unlimited

Guides

Jeffrey Open Space Trail
California

Jeffrey Open Space Trail

California

Irvine's Jeffrey Open Space Trail, currently open in three disconnected segments, has won awards for its landscaping and again and heads south to I-405. Along the way, connections to the San Diego Creek Trail and Freeway Trail increase the trail's utility. Near the trail's southern end, cross over the freeway on a pedestrian bridge and link with the Juanita Moe Trail heading east or the popular University Trail heading west.

Irvine's Jeffrey Open Space Trail, currently open in three disconnected segments, has won awards for its landscaping and innovative design incorporating a series of intaglio panels in the concrete bed of the trail. The panels take you through a 500-year history of the Irvine Ranch area.

The paved trail parallels Jeffrey Road among a suburban landscape of neighborhoods, shopping plazas and, as the name suggests, open space. At Bryan Avenue (Long Meadow), it links with the Venta Spur Trail. There's a break in the trail between Interstate 5 and the next short segment, which intersects the Walnut Trail adjacent to an active rail line.

At Barranca Parkway, the third and final segment picks up

Jeffrey Open Space Trail

California

States: California

Counties: Orange

Length: 4.1miles

Trail end points: Jeffrey Rd. and Portola Pkwy.
to University Trail and Juanita Moe Trail at I-405

Trail surfaces: Asphalt, Concrete

Trail category: Greenway/Non-RT

Trail activities: Bike, Inline

Skating, Wheelchair Accessible, Walking

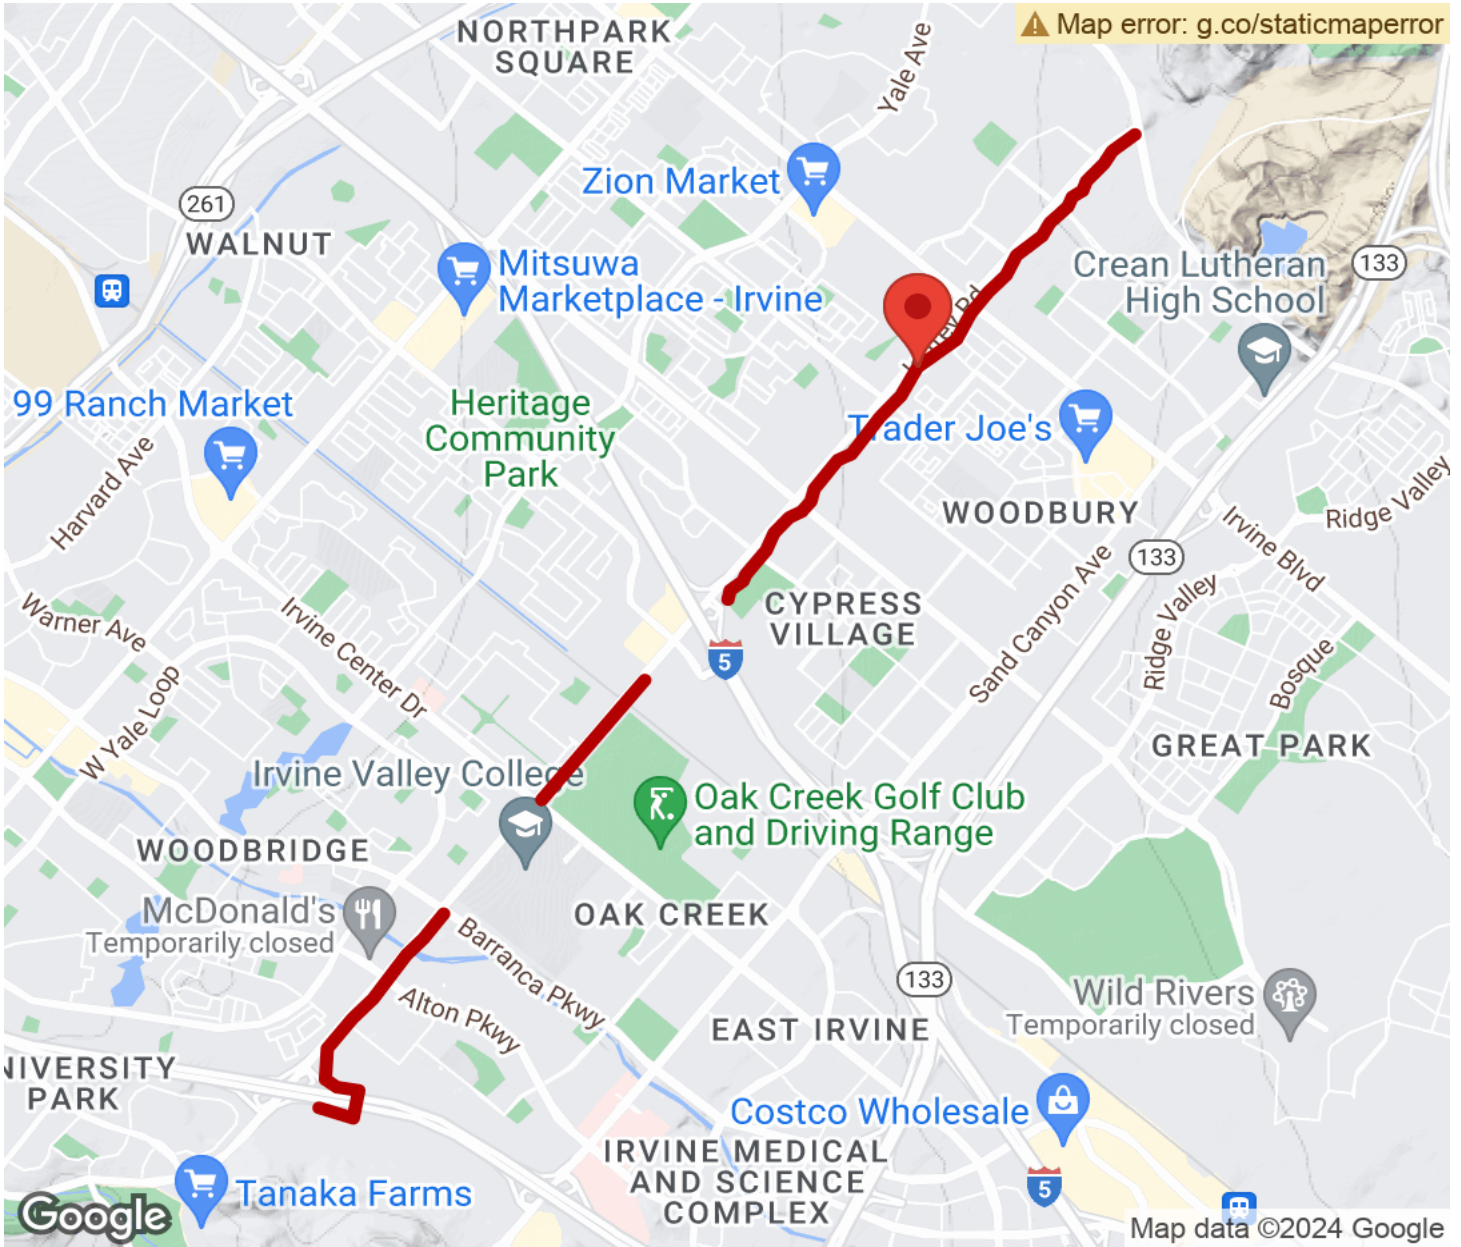

Parking & Trail Access

From either Interstate 405 or Interstate 5 in Irvine, take the Jeffrey Road exit and head north up Jeffrey Road to the intersection of Trabuco and Jeffrey roads. There is a shopping plaza on the corner here where you can park. Alternatively, go to Woodbury Community Park (130 Sanctuary), 0.32 miles southeast of the trail on the Venta Spur Trail. It has parking, drinking fountains and restrooms.

Jeffrey Open Space Trail

California

Trailhead

Restroom

Parking

Water Fountain

Tunnel

TrailLink
by Rails-to-Trails Conservancy

TrailLink.com