

2024

TrailLink Unlimited 🔯

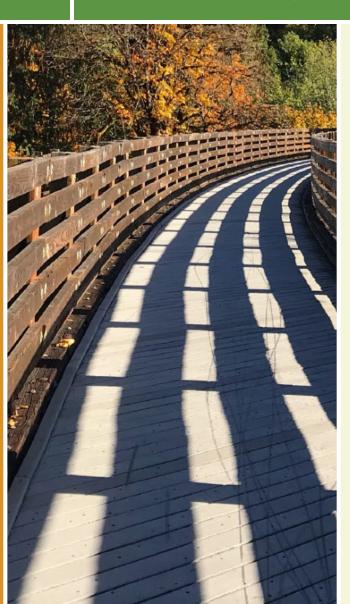

Guides 🕫 🤝

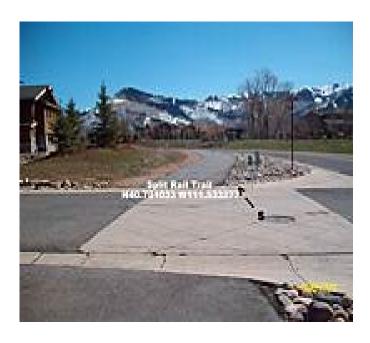

Split Rail Trail Utah

The Split Rail Trail takes trail-goers north along Split Rail Lane through a residential area in South Snyderville Basin. The paved

The Split Rail Trail takes trail-goers north along Split Rail Lane through a residential area in South Snyderville Basin. The paved neighborhood trail provides access to Willow Creek Park's athletic fields and fishing pond in the south and the Willow Creek Trail in the north.

States: Utah

Counties: Summit Length: 2miles

Trail end points: Willow Creek Trail at Split Rail Ln. to Split Rail Ln. at Willow Creek Park

Trail surfaces: Asphalt

Trail category: Greenway/Non-RT

Trail activities: Bike, Inline

Skating, Wheelchair Accessible, Walking

Parking & Trail Access

From Interstate 80, take exit 145 onto State Route 224 to Park City. Travel for 2.4 miles, then take a left on W. Old Ranch Road; travel a half mile to the entrance of Willow Creek Park & Trailhead.

