

TrailLink Unlimited Guides 🐨 📎 🟵

Duck Creek Trail (WI) Wisconsin

On the western end, the Duck Creek Trail picks up where the Newton Blackmour State Trail leaves off, that is just east of the

On the western end, the Duck Creek Trail picks up where the Newton Blackmour State Trail leaves off, that is just east of the town of Seymour at Vanderheuvel Road. Traveling along an old railroad route, the trail passes through a wooded corridor among farms, paralleling State Route 54, ending shortly after the highway crosses County Road U.

TrailLink.com

Parking & Trail Access

States: Wisconsin Counties: Brown,Outagamie Length: 6miles Trail end points: Vandenheuvel Road (Seymour) to Jason Dr., just off Riverdale Dr. (near County Road U, just east where it crosses Highway 54) Trail surfaces: Crushed Stone Trail category: Rail-Trail Trail activities: Bike,Wheelchair Accessible,Horseback Riding,Mountain

In Seymour, street parking is available.

TrailLink.com

TrailLink.com