Riverfront Trail (WA)

Washington

Castle Rock's popular Riverfront Trail originates at its main trailhead in Lion's Pride Park, which offers covered picnic areas.

Castle Rock's popular Riverfront Trail originates at its main trailhead in Lion's Pride Park, which offers covered picnic areas. Following a dike north along the Cowlitz River from the park, the trail passes residences, industrial properties and even a BMX track.

At the PH10/SR 411 road bridge, trail users have the option to continue on the paved trail along the eastern side of the river or to cross the bridge to access a gravel trail on the opposite side. A new fishing and viewing platform on the eastern bank marks the northern endpoint of the paved trail, while the gravel trail on the western side leads trail users to the Castle Rock Sports Complex.
