

2024

TrailLink Unlimited 🔯

Guides 🕫 🤝

South River Trail Georgia

Overview The South River Trail offers a 13.6-mile wooded route along its namesake river, about 15 miles southeast of Atlanta. About

A disconnected 3.5-mile segment runs along the South River between Martin Luther King Jr. High School and the Lyons Family Farm in Stonecrest. The Panola Shoals Trailhead, which has parking and restrooms, is midway along the route.

Connections

On its east end, the Stonecrest section ties into the area's extensive trail network with a connection to the Arabia Mountain Trail, which in turn connects to the Rockdale River Trail.

Overview

The South River Trail offers a 13.6-mile wooded route along its namesake river, about 15 miles southeast of Atlanta.

About the Route

A disconnected 10.1-mile segment runs east from Constitution Road and continues past Georgia State University Panthersville Campus, following a tree-covered path east along South River. In January 2018, a 3.8 mile section of the South River Trail in between Gresham Park and GSU Panthersville was renamed the Michelle Obama Walking Trail in honor the former first lady.

States: Georgia

Counties: De Kalb, Rockdale

Length: 13.6miles

Trail end points: Constitution Rd (Atlanta) to Waldrop Rd (Decatur) to Dogwood Farm Rd to

Lyons Rd (Stonecrest) Trail surfaces: Concrete

Trail category: Greenway/Non-RT

Trail activities: Bike, Inline

Skating, Wheelchair Accessible, Walking

Parking & Trail Access

The South River Trail runs between Atlanta and Decatur with a section in Stonecrest. Parking is available at several locations along the trail, including:

- Gresham Park (3113 Gresham Rd S E, Atlanta)
- GSU Perimeter Campus (Clifton Springs & Panthersville Rd)
- Panola Shoals Trailhead (intersection of Panola Rd & Snapfinger Rd)

Visit the TrailLink map for all options and detailed directions.

