The Bella Vista Lake Trail forms a loop around Bella Vista Lake in the park of the same name, located along Bentonville's northern edge. Along with this popular paved fitness trail, the park contains a playground, disc golf course and picnic tables.

From the trail bridge over the creek that feeds the lake, the Wishing Springs Trail heads south, passing under Interstate 49 and linking to other trails in Bentonville's extensive network. At its northern endpoint, the trail connects with the Blowing Springs Greenway. The three trails are the northernmost components of the Razorback
