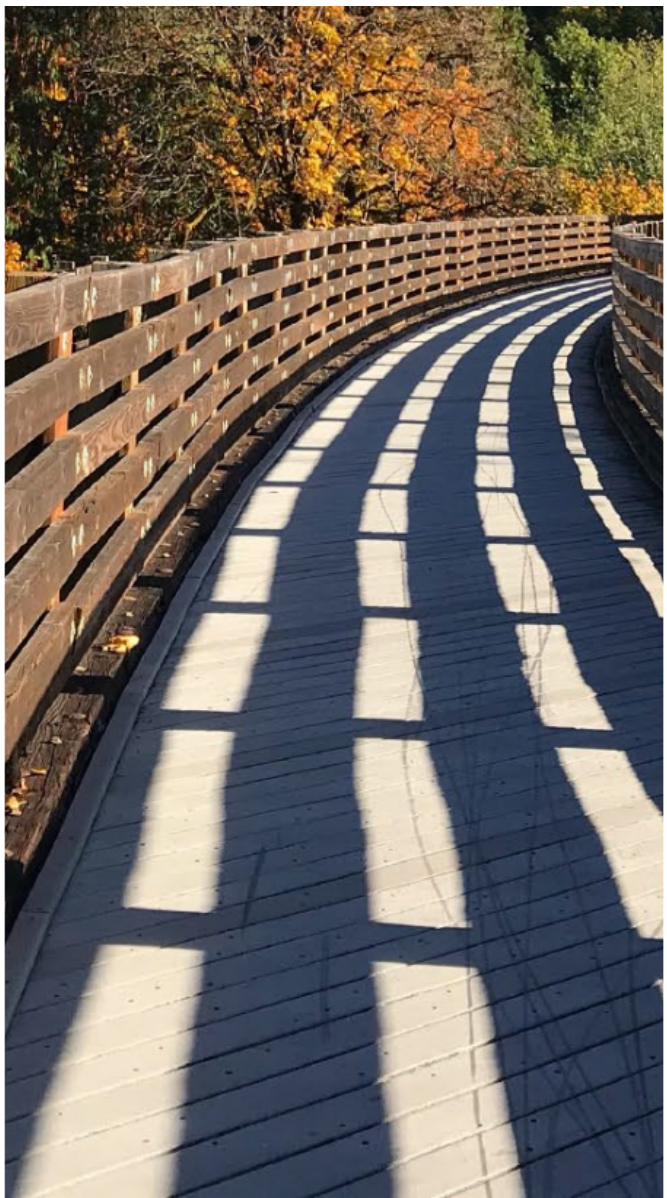
TrailLink
by Rails-to-Trails Conservancy

2025

TrailLink Unlimited

Guides



Bessemer Rail Trail

Alabama

Bessemer Rail Trail

Alabama

Bessemer's first rail-trail was opened in the spring of 2018. At just under half a mile, the first phase of the trail sits in the shaded

Bessemer's first rail-trail was opened in the spring of 2018. At just under half a mile, the first phase of the trail sits in the shaded former corridor of the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad paralleling 14th Street. The trail is asphalt and open to pedestrians and cyclists. Future phases will see it extended from Bessemer's historic downtown to Lakeshore Drive.

Bessemer Rail Trail

Alabama

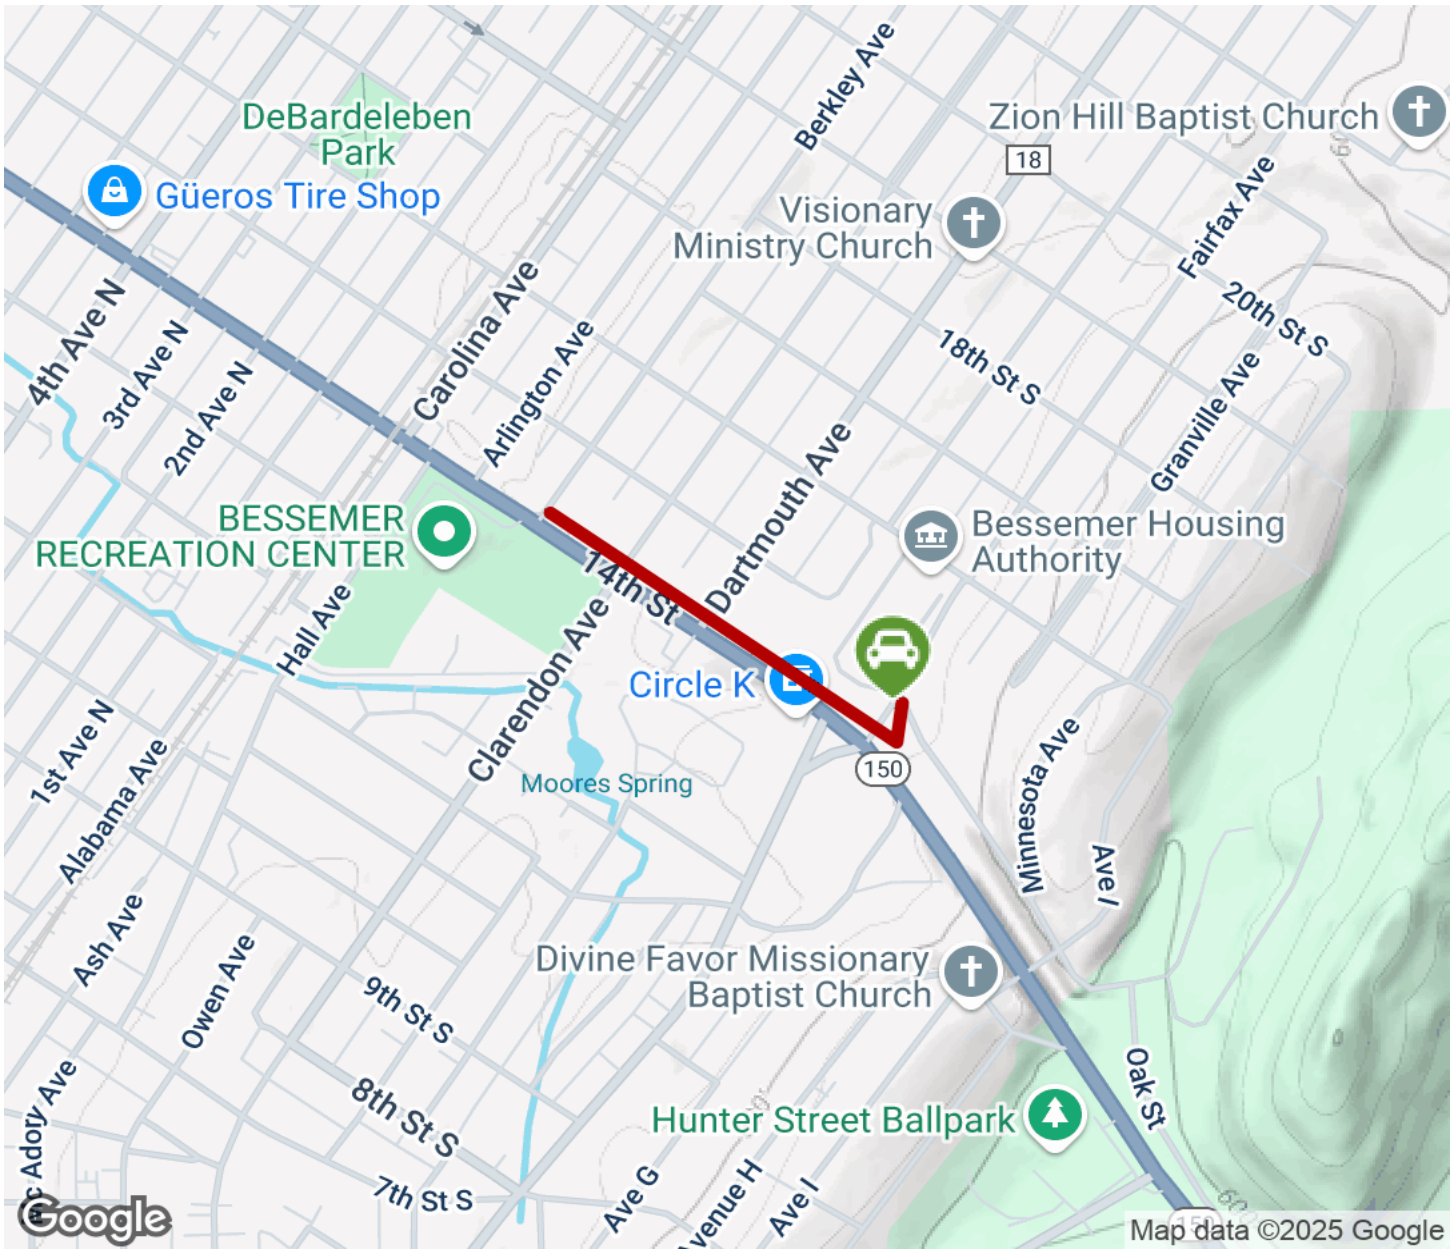
States: Alabama
Counties: Jefferson
Length: 0.43miles
Trail end points: Fairfax Avenue to Berkley Avenue
Trail surfaces: Asphalt
Trail category: Rail-Trail
Trail activities: Wheelchair Accessible,Walking

Parking & Trail Access

Some parking is available along Fairfax Ave near the trailhead.

Bessemer Rail Trail

Alabama



Trailhead Restroom Parking Water Fountain Tunnel