Greens Bayou Greenway

Texas

The Greens Bayou Greenway threads a green corridor, tracing both banks of its namesake bayou in northern Houston. The paved through the Waddell Greenspace Area and the Fifth segment runs from Strickland Park to the Thomas Bell Foster Park in the Northshore area of Houston.

The Greens Bayou Greenway threads a green corridor, tracing both banks of its namesake bayou in northern Houston. The paved pathway is bordered by residential neighborhoods and connects Tom Wussow Park—which offers playgrounds, covered picnic tables, and a YMCA—and City View Park.

The trail is part of a regional effort called Bayou Greenways 2020, spearheaded by the Houston Parks Board, which aims to have 150 miles of greenway trails running throughout Houston by the year 2020.

There are five disconnected segments that currently make up the trail, the first two follow Greens Bayou through the Greater Greenspoint Area. The third and fourth segments meander through East Houston and
