Bedford Reservation All Purpose Trail

Ohio

Less than 20 miles from Cleveland, the Bedford Reservation offers a scenic, natural oasis with many amenities and attractions, goes under OH 8.

After crossing Union Street, you'll parallel Egbert Road a short distance before turning onto the path along Gorge Parkway. About a half mile from the turn onto Gorge Parkway, you'll pass Egbert Picnic Area, which offers restrooms in addition to picnic shelters. This final western leg of the trail is lushly wooded; highlights of this section include access to Bridal Veil Falls and the Tinkers Creek Gorge Overlook. The trail ends on Alexander Road, finishing its 7.6-mile journey. For a longer ride, you can cross the road and connect to the 34-mile Bike and Hike Trail.

Less than 20 miles from Cleveland, the Bedford Reservation offers a scenic, natural oasis with many amenities and attractions, including opportunities for hiking, mountain biking, horseback riding and golfing. Winding through the 2,200-acre park is the paved Bedford Reservation All Purpose Trail.

On its eastern end, travelers can begin at the parking lot off Hawthorn Parkway, just west of the Richmond Road intersection. From the parking lot, the trail heads west, paralleling the parkway but with enough distance in between for a comfortable ride. On its north side, the pathway is heavily lined with trees; beyond the trees, you'll catch occasional glimpses of Tinkers Creek, a tributary of the Cuyahoga River. Just over a mile from your start, the trail heads under I-480 and, farther on,
