and Metka Rd. and then travels along Metka Rd., and then Ziegler Rd. to the left where the road splits.

The next section of the trail loops around Limerick Community Park and Manderach Memorial Playground. this section of trail is largely unshaded and loops around the baseball fields, soccer fields, and huge playground, complete with large slides, and other attractions. There is currently no trail west of here.

The southern section of the trail largely follows a PECO utility corridor between Limerick Center Rd. and Royersford Rd., with a small spur leading to W Linfield-Trapped Rd., close to a nearby YMCA.

Overview

Limerick Township, located in Montgomery County outside of Philadelphia, has an ambitious plan to build 8 miles of community trail networks. The trail currently is open in two disconnected segments but there are plans to connect these sections and to connect to other nearby trails.

About the Route

The northern section of the Limerick Township Trails runs through two parks: the Limerick Community Park and Kurylo Preserve. Leaving off in the east, the wide, paved trail runs through the grassy and open Kurylo Preserve. The trail cuts a corner between N Limerick Rd.
