Clearwater Memorial Causeway Trail

Florida

Clearwater Memorial Causeway Trail

Florida

The Clearwater Memorial Causeway Trail is a paved 3.5-mile trail that connects Clearwater Beach and downtown Clearwater. About

Once the trail enters Clearwater Park, it becomes significantly more crowded and there may not be clear wayfinding signage at this point. The trail rounds the busy Pier 60 Park, which hosts a fishing pier and large playground, and then heads south along Gulfview Boulevard, past a series of beach resorts.

Connections

At its eastern end in Clearwater, the trail connects the Pinellas Trail.

The Clearwater Memorial Causeway Trail is a paved 3.5-mile trail that connects Clearwater Beach and downtown Clearwater.

About the Route

From its eastern end in Clearwater, the trail briefly cuts through Clearwater, just south of downtown. The trail is separated from traffic as it slopes up Memorial Causeway Bridge. The trail stays close to the water for most of its length before it enters Clearwater Beach. There are overlooks jutting out allowing trail users to pause and enjoy in the views of Clearwater Bay. Helpfully, there's sheltered seating with trash receptacles provided at intervals.
