The Yates Store Road Street-Side Trail in Cary is over a shared use pathway linking residents of the surrounding neighborhoods to the other trails in their town. So while the trail itself is just a mile long, you can boost your mileage by continuing on the Morris Branch Greenway for an additional two miles. That's at the south end of the trail. Towards the north endpoint, the Yates Store Road trail intersects with the Nancy Branch Greenway.

The Yates Store Road Street Side Trail can be used for walking, jogging, dog-walking and in-line skating among other non-motorized uses.
