

2025

TrailLink Unlimited

Guides

Kingfisher Trail

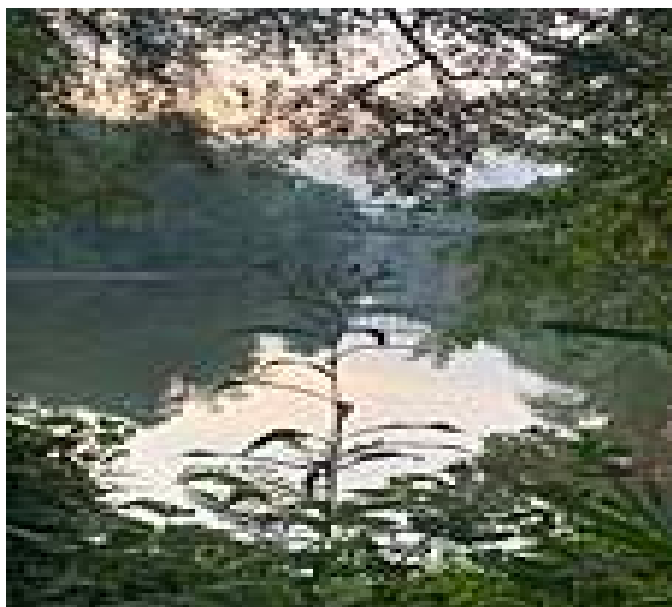

Georgia

Kingfisher Trail

Georgia

The Kingfisher Trail is part of Rome's connected ECO Greenway trail system, spanning 16 miles. The trail is paved with 12-foot wide

The Kingfisher Trail is part of Rome's connected ECO Greenway trail system, spanning 16 miles. The trail is paved with 12-foot wide concrete and is located on the west side of the Etowah River. It stretches from Branham Creek at the cemetery and ends at an intersection with the Silver Creek Trail.

TrailLink
by Rails-to-Trails Conservancy

TrailLink.com

Kingfisher Trail

Georgia

States: Georgia

Counties: Floyd

Length: 0.6miles

Trail end points: Branham Avenue SW to Silver Creek Trail

Trail surfaces: Concrete

Trail category: Greenway/Non-RT

Trail activities: Bike,Inline

Skating,Wheelchair Accessible,Walking

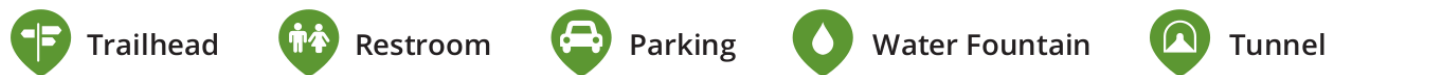

Parking & Trail Access

A small parking lot is located at the northern end of the trail, on Branham Avenue just north of the Broad Street bridge.

TrailLink
by Rails-to-Trails Conservancy

TrailLink.com

TrailLink.com