trails known as the OPAL (Oletangy, Powell and Liberty) Trail.

The Sawmill Parkway Trail is a shared use path running the length of the parkway from Delaware to Powell. The trail is paved and mostly sits on the west side of the road. Along the trail are residential subdivisions, businesses and golf courses making the trail a suitable recreation spot for local folks just looking for a place to stretch their legs or ride their bikes without worrying about traffic. The northern half is more rural, with rolling crop fields stretching out to the horizon.

There are five roundabouts to navigate along the trail. Going west about one mile along Powell Road (SR 750) there is a shared use trail to the Columbus Zoo and Zoombezi Bay water park.

The Sawmill Parkway Trail is part of a regional complex of
