A neighborhood offshoot of the longer Zumbro South Trail, the Mayowood Bike Path is an asphalt sidepath trail that parallels Mayowood Road in southern Rochester. The trail is relatively flat, running along the edge of suburban neighborhoods, with wooded expanses to the south providing some pleasant natural scenery. Cyclists and pedestrians can enjoy a quick stroll or ride along the trail, or use it as a connection to the local elementary school or the John Withers Sports Complex, which lies at the eastern end where the trail meets up with the Zumbro South Trail.
