Overview

The 1.5-mile BNSF Trail is just one of the many trails in the greater Boulder area of Colorado. The short route provides a paved and flat route.

About the Route

The northern end of the trail leaves off from the Great Bark Dog Park, where there is plenty of open space for exploration. The southern end of the trail is just a short distance from the longer Coal Creek Trail. In between, trail users will be treated to a sunny, flat route, with plenty of panoramic views.
