The multiuse path along Post Road starts at Yacht Road and heads west for just over half a mile. The smooth paved trail is located on the south side of the road, passing by gated communities and connecting to Old Trace Park, the park & event venue that sits on the edge of the Ross Bartlett Reservoir. The park is also home to the City of Ridgeland's Recreation Center, as well as an 18-hole disc golf course. Post Road's walk-bike pathway also makes a connection to the Chisha Foka Multi-Use Trail.
