This paved shared-use path sits on the east side of S. Main Street in the city of Roswell. The path allows commuters to ride from the south of the city to the industries and businesses lining Main Street. The trail also provides access to the South Park Cemetery. Beyond the cemetery, a sidewalk continues north to Poe Street. There are some trees but in general, there's not a lot of shade to be had so always stay hydrated and wear sun protection when using the trail.
