Silver Quinns Trail is a paved multi-use trail northeast of downtown Park City, Utah. The trail is sits on the east side of the Round Valley open space, which is home to a 30 miles of unpaved mountain biking trails. Cutting an asphalt swath through the landscape of sagebrush and other high desert vegetation, the trail is one of the easier, family-friendly rides in the Round Valley complex. From the Park City Sports Complex on Gilmore Way, the trail winds north, passing the Park City Hospital and ultimately connecting to the Silver Summit subdivision.

Silver Quinns trailhead in the Park City Sports Complex (Quinns Junction) is about 10 minutes' drive from the center of Park City, and a 30-minute bike ride along the Historic Union Pacific Rail Trail.
