The Bartlett Trail is a recreational trail in the Village of Bartlett, Du Page county. Though short, the trail is conveniently located as a space for exercise, while providing a safe route to school and access to several parks. The trail stretches southwest to northeast between homes, bisecting Sunrise Park in the process. The neighborhood park has passive green space as well as disc golf, a skate park, dog park and spray ground. After a couple of street crossings, the trail connects to Sycamore Trails Elementary, then continues on to its end near the Bartlett Vietnam Memorial on the corner of Bartlett Road & Stearns Road. Across Stearns Road lies Apple Orchard Park, the Bartlett Aquatic Center and the library.

The Village of Bartlett is home to over 19 miles of bicycle paths.
