The Keoneula Boulevard Bike Path is a concrete, two-lane trail in Ewa Beach on Oahu's south shore. The sidepath sits on the north side of the boulevard and runs through a residential subdivision. The homes and golf courses are pretty, and it is possible to connect to other nearby local trails; on the east end it connects to Kapolei Parkway, which has a four-mile long bike path, and which in turn links to the Keaunui Drive Bike Path and the Fort Weaver Road Path.
