The Triplett Bikeway both figuratively and literally paved the way for more bike paths in the Village of Bluffton. The trail was built as a result of citizen organizing in the 1980's, led by Ropp and Mary Em Triplett. There are two off-street segments connected by village streets. The first segment starts on Lake Road and parallels the railroad tracks to State Route 103, a distance of nearly a half-mile. The lower segment can be reached by riding on village streets - Huber Street then Mound Street, Cherry Street, Geiger Street and College Avenue. This stretch, which passes under I-75, is much more wooded and winds its way along streams to Bluffton Village Park. Visitors there can engage in organized sports like soccer and baseball. There's also park seating and a playground.

Today, the Village is home to about 10 miles of soft and
