As its name suggests, the Leesburg-Wildwood Trail is planned to connect the two communities via an off-street, walking and biking pathway. Presently, the trail extends between Veech Road and N. 14th Street in Leesburg, on the old Florida Midland Railroad right-of-way. At 14th Street/ US 27, it continues another 0.9 miles to Canal Street as the Fountain Lake Trail within the same former rail corridor. A shared-use path known as the Venetian Gardens Trail parallels Canal Street for another half-mile.

The Leesburg-Wildwood Trail is asphalt and generally flat. The trail sits within an electric utility corridor.
