The Gary Green Link Trail is part of the Buchanan Street Green Gateway project and follows the Grand Calumet River starting at Bridge Street on its way to Broadway at City Hall. It is about 4.4 miles roundtrip. About half of the trail follows the river while the other half is through the city. Most of the trail is on either a paved trail or on extra-wide sidewalks with well-marked and accessible street-crossings, but one-quarter mile shares a low-traffic street with cars. There is good directional signage throughout the trail.
