the paths that are included in the system to provide connectivity to the primary route of the Mount Pleasant Way. The nearby Grey Marsh Road Bike Path is another.

The Carolina Park Boulevard Bike Path is an 8-foot wide asphalt shared-use path that follows Carolina Park Boulevard for 1.3-miles through Mount Pleasant residential communities and alongside wooded areas. The path provides pedestrian connections between local communities and access to nature from 1801 Carolina Park Blvd until it ends by the Wando Mount Pleasant Library at the intersection of Carolina Park Blvd and Park Ave Blvd. At this intersection, the path meets the south end of the Darrell Creek Trail & Park Ave Bike Path.

Although not included in the main route of Mount Pleasant Way system, both the Carolina Park Boulevard Bike Path and the Darrell Creek Trail & Park Ave Bike Path are part of the roughly 47-miles of connected off-road shared-use paths, trails and greenways. They are among
