

2026

TrailLink Unlimited

Guides

Wabash River Trail

Indiana

Wabash River Trail

Indiana

Following the Wabash River for 7.7 miles, the Wabash River Trail combines a community pathway, river recreation, canal history, Riverwalk Trail and the southernmost portion of the trail is often called the Wabash Riverwalk Trail, which continues following the river south. The riverwalk portion of the trail stretches 0.75 miles from S Huntington Street to just past the intersection of Smith Street and S Carroll Street. On Smith Street past the intersection, there is a trailhead with 20 parking spaces and 2 accessible spaces.

Following the Wabash River for 7.7 miles, the Wabash River Trail combines a community pathway, river recreation, canal history, and land conservation. The trail offers the opportunity to experience the region's small towns, active communities, pastoral landscapes, farm country, and historic features. Running between Wabash and Lagro, this paved trail is perfect for all manner of recreational activities. Whether you are looking to leisurely enjoy the scenic river views or engaging in exercise, the Wabash River Trail is for you. Open for running, walking, and biking, it's also prime spot for observing bald eagles and other river wildlife. The trail provides areas for fishing, canoe and kayak access to the river, and scenic overlooks.

In Wabash, the trail connects with the Paradise Spring

TrailLink
by Rails-to-Trails Conservancy

TrailLink.com

Wabash River Trail

Indiana

States: Indiana

Counties: Wabash

Length: 7 miles

Trail end points: Basin St. (Lagro) to Smith St.
(Wabash)

Trail surfaces: Asphalt

Trail category: Greenway/Non-RT

Trail activities: Bike, Fishing, Walking, Wheelchair Accessible

Parking & Trail Access

Parking is available at multiple locations along the route.

In Wabash, there is a parking lot near Paradise Spring Historical Park (351 W Market St). The parking lot is located on S Huntington Street just north of the bridge. Additional parking in Wabash can be found on Hill Street. The parking lot is located just east of 619 E Hill Street. Signage on the road will direct you to the trail parking. The Wabash Riverwalk Trail has parking at its Smith St Trailhead. Follow the riverwalk 0.75 miles to the Paradise Spring Historical Park to connect with the Wabash River Trail.

In Lagro, there is a parking lot located at 850 Basin Street.

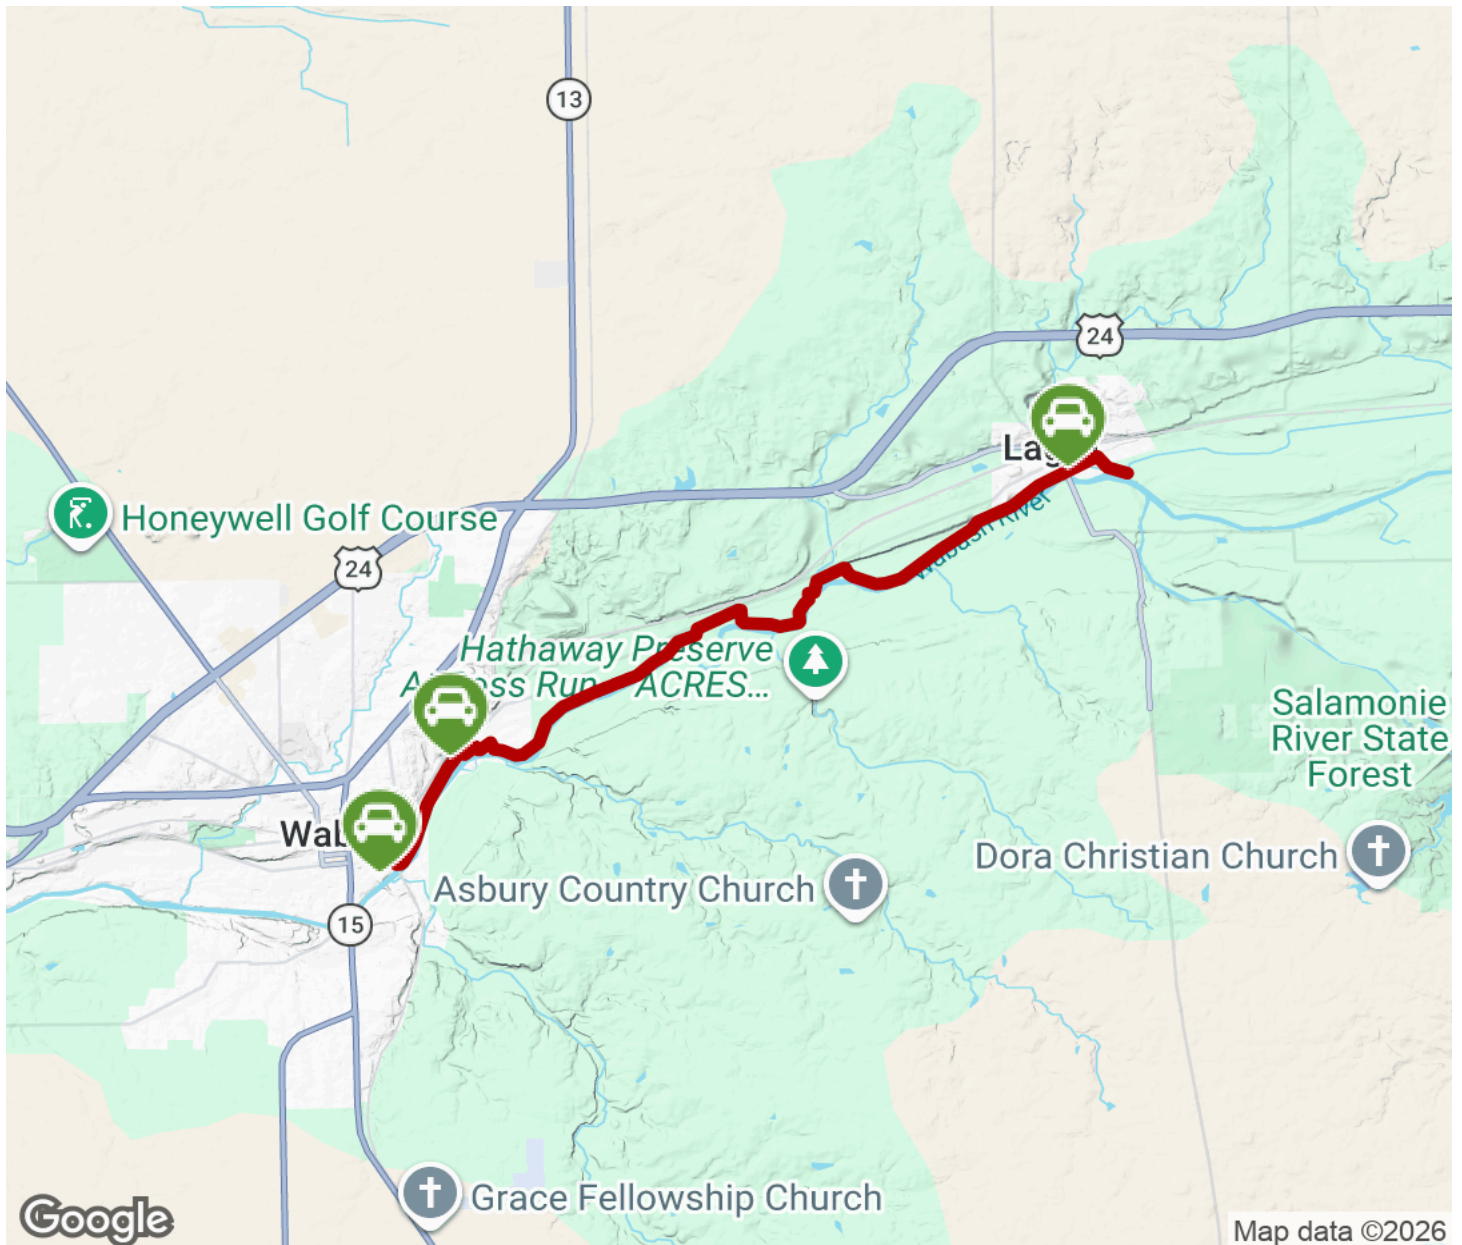

TrailLink
by Rails-to-Trails Conservancy

TrailLink.com

Wabash River Trail

Indiana

Trailhead

Restroom

Parking

Water Fountain

Tunnel

TrailLink
by Rails-to-Trails Conservancy

TrailLink.com