Meandering along the Penobscot River in downtown Bucksport, the mile-long Bucksport Waterfront Walkway is popular with both local residents and visitors. There are historic plaques placed along the brick path, which is lined with a variety of plants and flowers. Public restrooms are located at each end of the walkway with gazebos and water fountains providing places to rest and refresh. Downtown Bucksport offers a number of restaurants and local businesses. Towards the northwest end, the trail runs parallel to the railroad.
