Rock Island Road Bike and Pedestrian Trail

Texas

Providing the City of Irving with a major east-west pedestrian/bike route, the Rock Island Road Trail is a 10-foot-wide concrete path

Providing the City of Irving with a major east-west pedestrian/bike route, the Rock Island Road Trail is a 10-foot-wide concrete path running between the West Irving DART station and Irby Lane. With its paved and level surface, the trail is accessible for those using mobility aids or for families with strollers. In addition, to offering safe and reliable access to light rail service, this trail connects neighborhoods, parks, schools, local businesses, and community facilities.
