Windsor Castle Park Trails

Virginia

Located in the 208-acre riverside Windsor Castle Park, this trail system winds along picturesque creeks and marshes, through mile off-road cycling trail. For those interested in tracking mileage, there are numbered station markers along the route and the park's website provides more information.

Dogs on leashes are allowed on the walking paths and there is a dog park with double-gated entrances, benches, water station, and dog cleaning stations. The park also has a natural playscape, a picnic area, restrooms, a historic manor house, free guided tours, a fishing pier, a boat launch and kayak/canoe rentals. The picnic area has grills, picnic tables, nearby restrooms, and a hand-washing station.

Whether you are a visitor or a local, Windsor Castle Park has something for everyone and the walking paths are a wonderful way to explore all it has to offer.

Located in the 208-acre riverside Windsor Castle Park, this trail system winds along picturesque creeks and marshes, through woodlands and open spaces, and offers beautiful views of the surrounding landscapes. The park is situated next to downtown Smithfield and is within easy walking distance of the town's shops, restaurants, attractions, and local residences.

Built according to "Sustainable Trail Design" standards, there are 3.8 miles of ADA-compliant walking trails. Crossing creeks and marshes, the route includes five pedestrian bridges. Overlooks with benches are placed along the trail for resting and taking in the views.

The walking paths are reserved for pedestrians only (no bikes, horses, skateboards, etc.), but the park has a half-
