

2024

TrailLink Unlimited

Guides

Otto Armleder Memorial Park

Ohio

Otto Armleder Memorial Park

Ohio

Located in Cincinnati, Otto Armleder Memorial Park is 305 acres and home to a wide variety of recreational opportunities. The park links with the Armleder-Lunken Connector Trail. Additional paths meander through the park.

Located in Cincinnati, Otto Armleder Memorial Park is 305 acres and home to a wide variety of recreational opportunities. The park has a playground, soccer fields, picnic areas and pavilion, a 10-acre dog park, a river overlook, and kayak/canoe access to the Little Miami River. The dog park has different areas for smaller and larger pups, a canine shower, and drinking fountains. The park is open from 6am to 10pm.

The trail has a paved 2-mile trail, the Armleder Park Trail, and a 1.0-mile paved trail, the Armleder-Lunken Connector Trail, that links it to the 5.0-mile Lunken Airport Bike Path, which loops around Cincinnati's municipal airport and connects with the Ohio River Trail. The southern endpoint of the 78-mile Little Miami Scenic Trail is located near the southern end of the park and

Otto Armleder Memorial Park

Ohio

States: Ohio

Counties: Hamilton

Length: 3miles

Trail end points: 5057 Wooster Pike to Wooster Rd & Emerald Ave

Trail surfaces: Asphalt

Trail category: Greenway/Non-RT

Trail activities: Walking

Parking & Trail Access

Southwest Ohio's fixed-route bus system, Metro, provides easy access to the park. Visit the Metro website to plan your trip.

For those driving, parking is available in a large lot at the park (5057 Wooster Pike, Cincinnati).