

2026

TrailLink Unlimited

Guides

Brookside Reservation All Purpose Trail

Ohio

Brookside Reservation All Purpose Trail

Ohio

The Brookside Reservation All Purpose Trail curves around Cleveland Metroparks Zoo and winds through the Brookside

The Brookside Reservation All Purpose Trail curves around Cleveland Metroparks Zoo and winds through the Brookside Reservation (3900 John Nagy Blvd, Cleveland). The paved, multiuse trail ends across the street from Brighton Park and its all purpose trail, which provides a connection with the Ohio & Erie Canal Towpath Trail.

The route includes a scenic overlook of Big Creek, a tributary of the Cuyahoga River. The reservation has a variety of wildlife, sports fields, picnic areas, restrooms, and a playground.

Brookside Reservation All Purpose Trail

Ohio

States: Ohio

Counties: Cuyahoga

Length: 2.9miles

Trail end points: Pearl Rd & Wildlife Way to Ridge Rd & John Nagy Blvd (Cleveland)

Trail surfaces: Asphalt, Concrete

Trail category: Greenway/Non-RT

Trail activities: Bike, Inline

Skating, Walking, Wheelchair Accessible

Parking & Trail Access

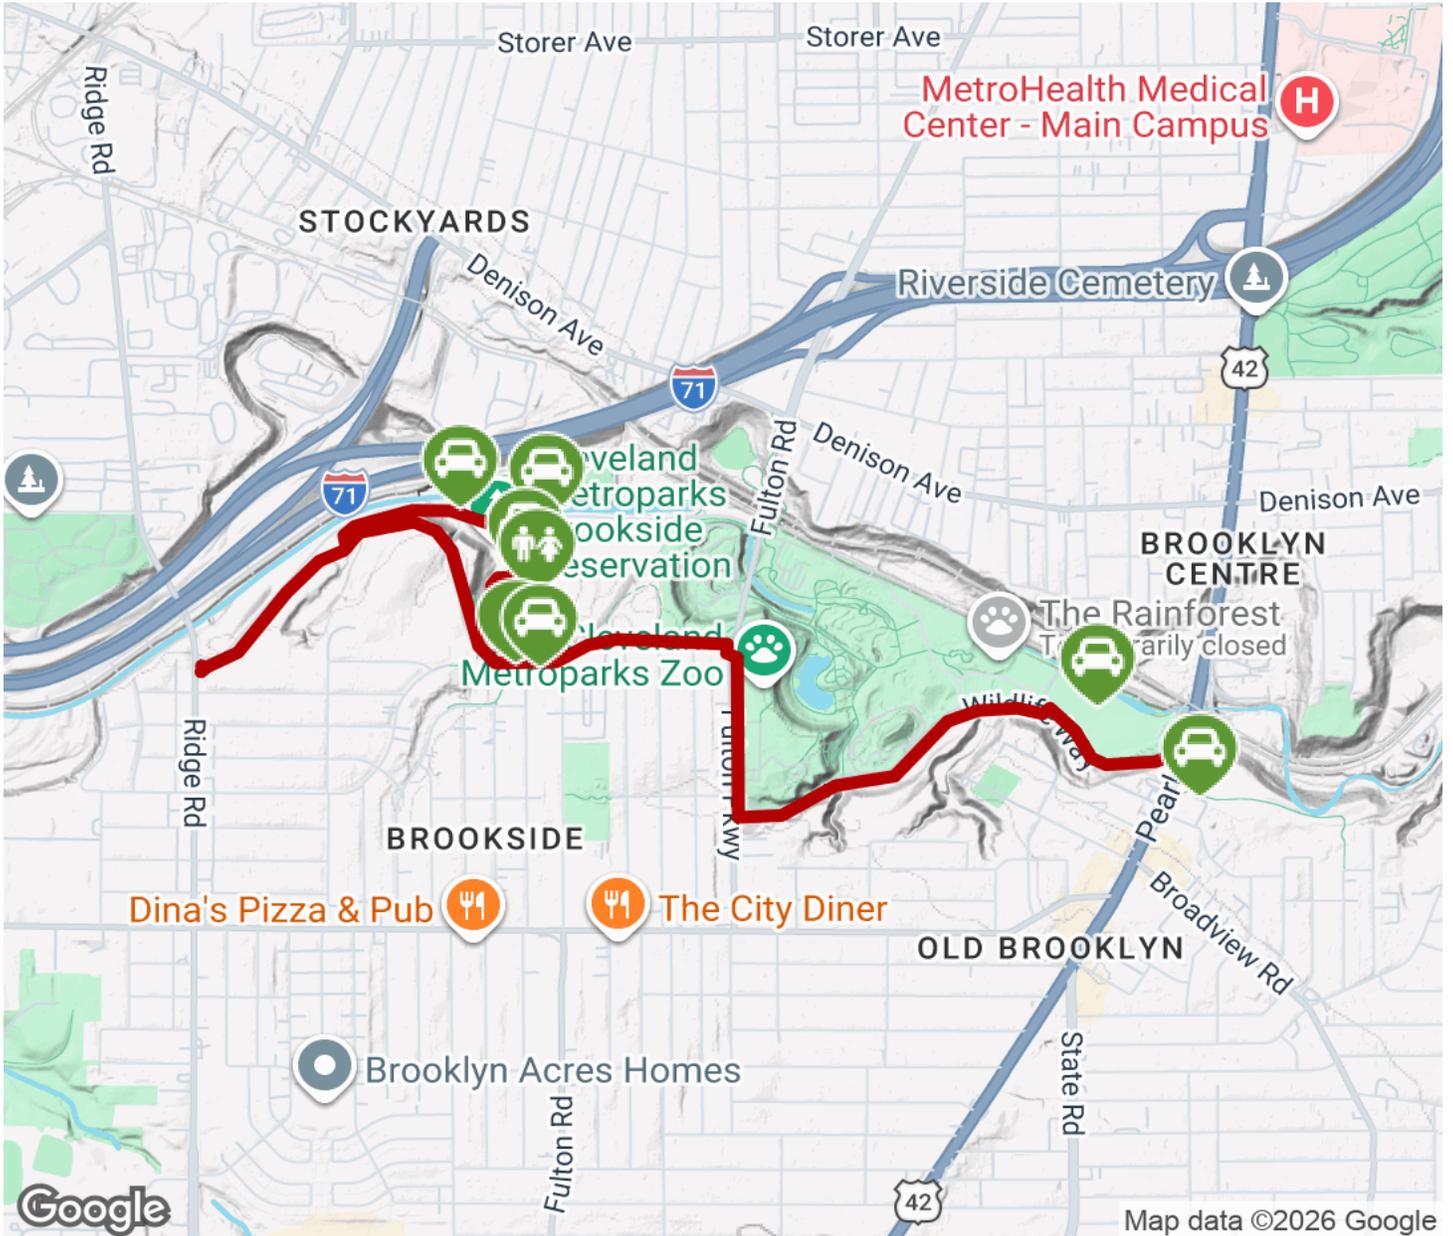

Cleveland's regional transit system provides access to the trail via several bus stops along the streets surrounding the zoo and the reservation. Visit the RTA website for more information.

Parking is available at a number of lots in the Brookside Reservation including by the Cherry Grove Picnic Area, by the Meadow Ridge Picnic Area by playground and sports fields, by the Bear Parking Lot, and in numerous lots along John Nagy Boulevard. Visit the TrailLink map for all options and detailed directions.

Brookside Reservation All Purpose Trail

Ohio

- Trailhead
- Restroom
- Parking
- Water Fountain
- Tunnel