

2026

TrailLink Unlimited

Guides

City Walk

North Carolina

City Walk
North Carolina

The City Walk is part of the Hickory Trail network and provides an important off-road route through downtown Hickory. From its

The City Walk is part of the Hickory Trail network and provides an important off-road route through downtown Hickory. From its eastern end on 8th Street by Lenoir-Rhyne University, the trail heads west along Main Avenue through downtown before heading north along 11th Street NW until it reaches Old Lenoir Road.

City Walk

North Carolina

States: North Carolina

Counties: Catawba

Length: 2.5miles

Trail end points: 561 11th St NW, Hickory to 638a 8th St NE, Hickory

Trail surfaces: Asphalt, Concrete

Trail category: Greenway/Non-RT

Trail activities: Bike, Inline

Skating, Walking, Wheelchair Accessible

Parking & Trail Access

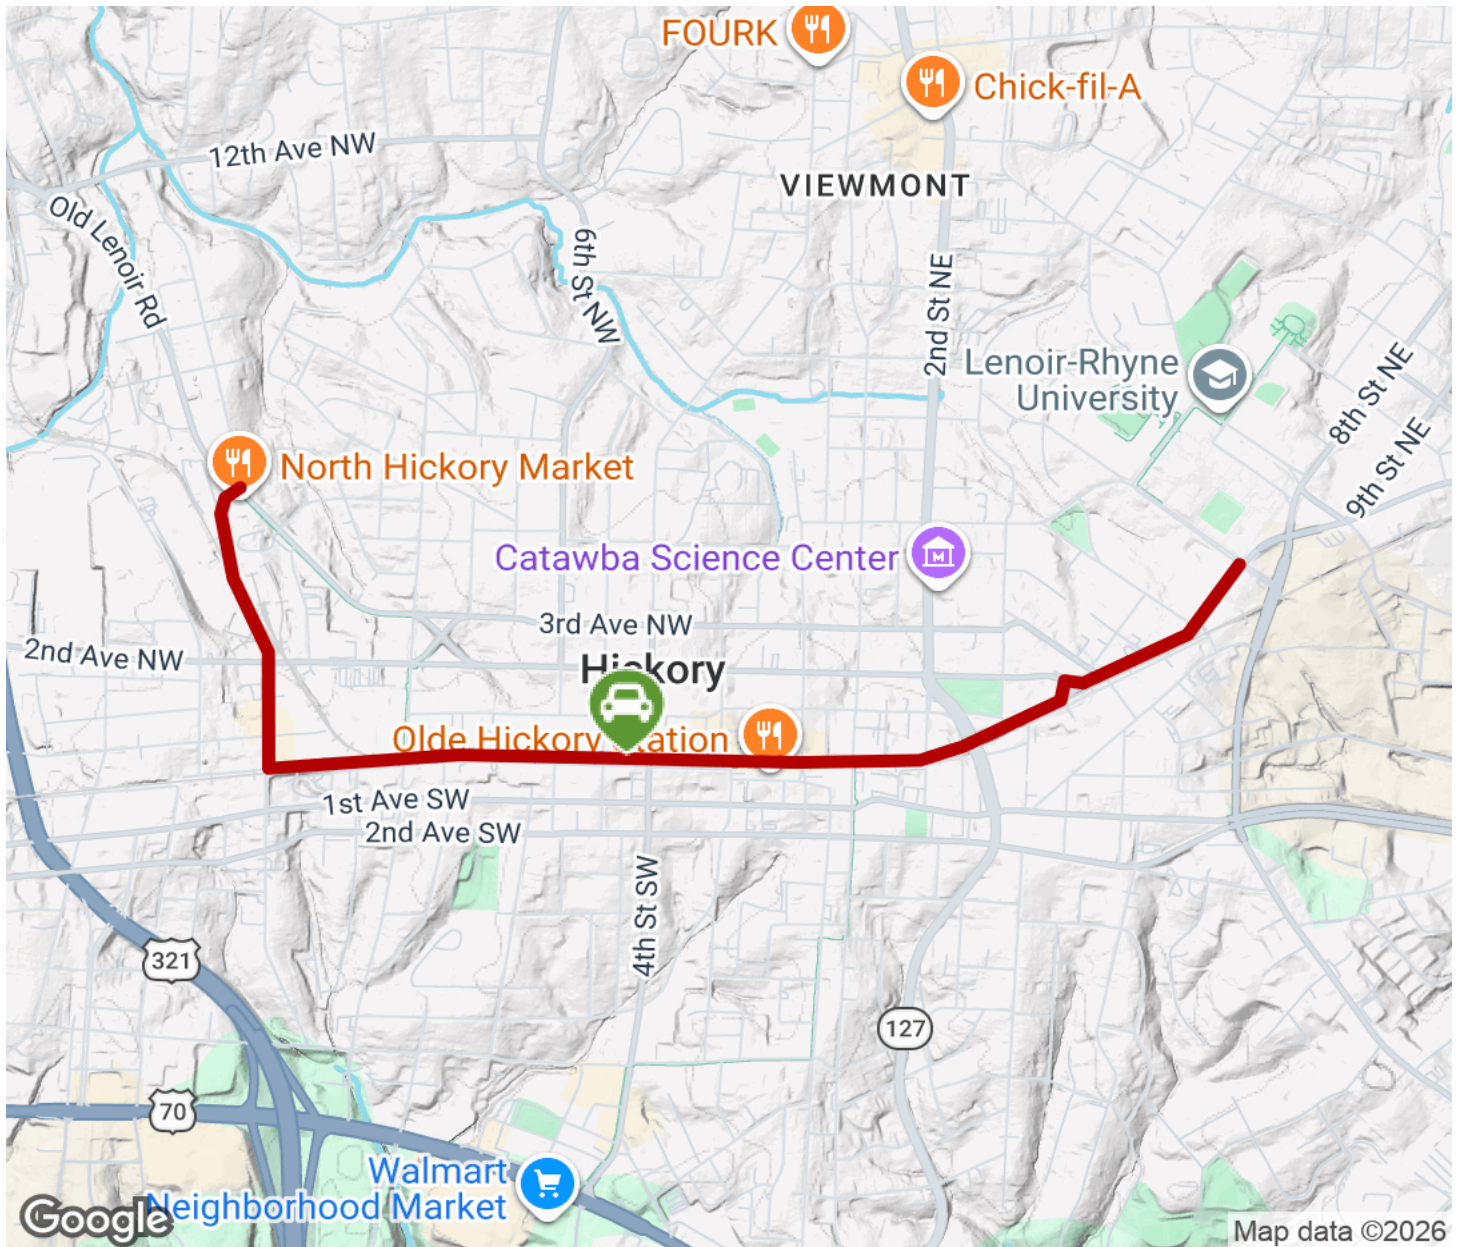

Greenway Public Transportation provides access to the trail via a number of bus stops along 8th Street and NW Main Street. Refer to the Greenway website for more information.

Parking is available in linear parking lots along Main Street NW.

City Walk

North Carolina

- Trailhead
- Restroom
- Parking
- Water Fountain
- Tunnel