The Lehigh and Hudson Rail Trail is 2.3 miles long with a gravel surface. Following a former rail corridor, the trail runs through woods and fields.

About the Route

The northern end of the trail is on Airport Road. From there, the trail runs southwest through agricultural fields and lightly wooded areas. The entire route is lined with trees, which provide shade during the hotter months.

Near the trail's southern end, it passes EverGreen Park. The park has a playground, a pavilion with picnic tables, a soccer field, a baseball field, softball fields, basketball courts, and parking.
