Connections

The Fraser Township Trail is part of the Iron Belle Trail, two routes that cross over 2,000 miles, and both peninsulas of Michigan.

The Fraser Township Trail runs for 4 miles through Bay County, MI which borders the shores of Lake Huron.

About the Route

The Fraser Township Trail travels through Bay County, MI, a rural and scarcely-populated area in Michigan. The trail follows the old railroad corridor for its entire route, which is composed of a gravel surface and is shaded by the surrounding treeline.

The trail's northern endpoint is located along Old State Rd. and the trail travels due south for 4 miles until N Elevator Rd., although the best access point on the southern end can be found along E Prevo Rd.
