About the Route

The Plum Creek Greenway Trail has a crushed limestone surface and is quite hilly, making it ideal for biking, hiking, horseback riding, and cross country skiing. Please be aware that dogs are only allowed on some portions of the trail due to ecological sensitivity of the preserves. Trailhead signs indicate where dogs aren't allowed.

The Goodenow Grove Nature Preserve portion of the trail runs north from the trailhead on E Goodenow Road and then meanders northeast through the preserve before
