Hilton Head Island provides miles of bike paths that connect trail users to car-free access to each corner of the island. The main pathways span 45 miles, but additional paths and bike lanes can extend your journey as well.

Most pathways are flat and paved.

About the Route

The biggest trail follows US 278 which loops around the island. From here, trail users can access notable sites like Folly Fields Beach, Coligny Beach Park, Hilton Head Airport, and more. Visitors can also access the gated communities of the island like Hilton Head Plantations, Sea Pines, and Palmetto Dunes.
