

2026

TrailLink Unlimited

Guides

Northwestern University Lakefill
Illinois

Northwestern University Lakefill

Illinois

The Lakefill is 74-acres of reclaimed earth, that juts out into Lake Michigan on Northwestern University's Evanston Campus. About the

The Lakefill is 74-acres of reclaimed earth, that juts out into Lake Michigan on Northwestern University's Evanston Campus.

About the Route

In addition to a one-mile asphalt path, the Lakefill is also often filled with hammockers and other's enjoying the grassy lakeside space. Trail users will be treated to lakeside views and glimpses of downtown Chicago. The trail is best accessed from either the Regenstein Hall of Music or the Lanny and Sharon Martin Stadium.

Northwestern University Lakefill

Illinois

States: Illinois

Counties: Cook

Length: 0.9miles

Trail end points: Lanny and Sharon Martin Stadium to Regenstein Hall of Music

Trail surfaces: Asphalt

Trail category: Greenway/Non-RT

Trail activities: Bike, Walking, Wheelchair Accessible

Parking & Trail Access

The Northwestern University Lakefill runs between the Lanny and Sharon Martin Stadium and the Regenstein Hall of Music, although there is no public parking there.

Public parking can be found at:

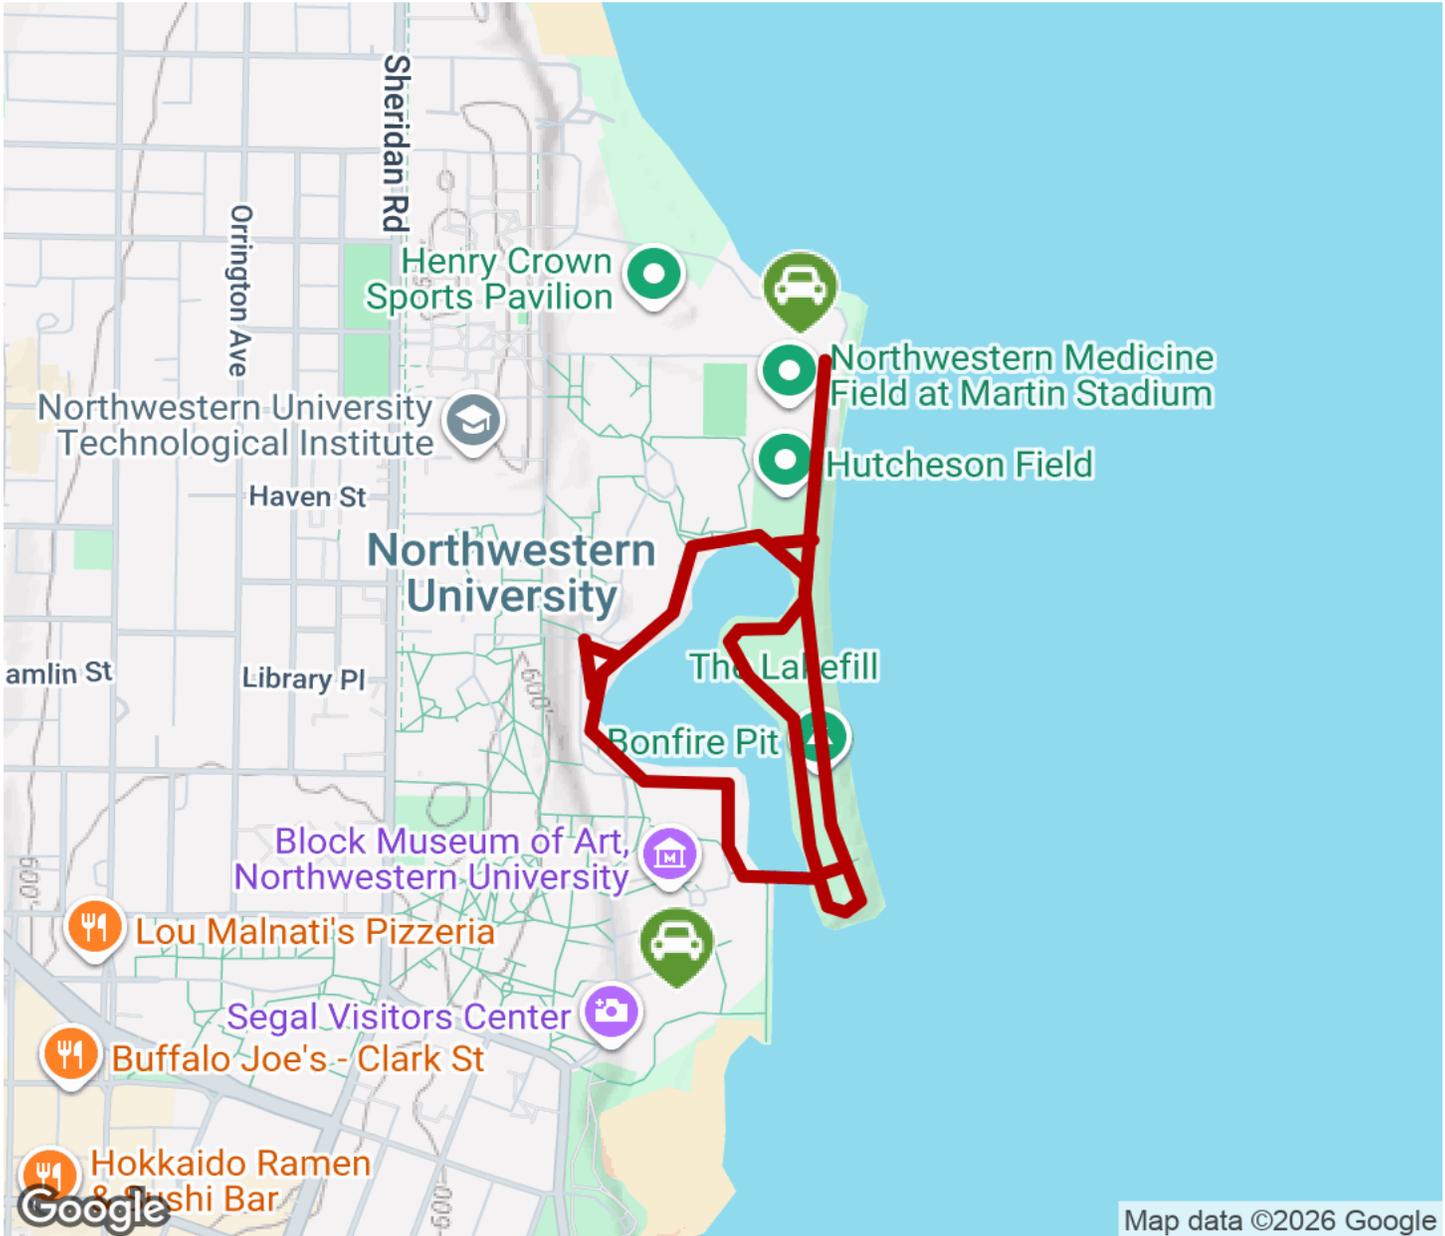

- 1847 Campus Dr. (Evanston)
- 2311 N Campus Dr. (Evanston)

Please see TrailLink Map for all parking options and detailed directions.

Northwestern University Lakefill

Illinois

Trailhead

Restroom

Parking

Water Fountain

Tunnel

TrailLink
by Rails-to-Trails Conservancy

TrailLink.com