The Old Railroad Grade is a 1.95 mile trail located within Little Beaver State Park in West Virginia.

About the Route

Unlike a typical rail trail, the Old Railroad Grade is hiking-only and traverses a hilly landscape throughout the state park. The trail is just north of the park campground and nearby Weaver Way and Deer Trail. The trail is a very oblong loop, with the trail doubling back just shy of the other side of the trail. Follow the yellow blazes through the woods to help find your way.
