

2026

TrailLink Unlimited

Guides

Upchurch Road Trail

Virginia

Upchurch Road Trail

Virginia

The Upchurch Road Trail is a forest service road that is open for hiking and mountain biking in Grayson Highlands State Park. It is

The Upchurch Road Trail is a forest service road that is open for hiking and mountain biking in Grayson Highlands State Park. It is a rocky dirt trail that is best suited for mountain biking. Starting from the trail's southern end, Upchurch Road gains and loses 700ft of elevation.

At the trail's northern end, trail users can continue along Seed Orchard Road Trail.

Upchurch Road Trail

Virginia

States: Virginia

Counties: Grayson

Length: 3.1miles

Trail end points: Seed Orchard Road to Mill
Creek Lane

Trail surfaces: Dirt

Trail category: Greenway/Non-RT

Trail activities: Horseback Riding, Mountain
Biking, Walking

Parking & Trail Access

Parking for the Upchurch Road Trail is available near the trail's southern end at the Homestead/Picnic Area.