

2026

TrailLink Unlimited

Guides

Gerbode Valley Loop
California

Gerbode Valley Loop

California

The Gerbode Valley Loop encircles the Golden Gate National Recreation Area. From the Smith Road Trailhead, trail users should

The Gerbode Valley Loop encircles the Golden Gate National Recreation Area. From the Smith Road Trailhead, trail users should head north on the Rodeo Valley Trail which turns into the Alta Trail. Head south on the Bobcat Trail to remeet the Rodeo Valley Trail before reaching the Smith Road Trailhead once again.

The Gerbode Valley Loop is open to mountain biking but the whole trail gains and loses 950ft of elevation across its 5 mile route.

TrailLink
by Rails-to-Trails Conservancy

TrailLink.com

Gerbode Valley Loop

California

States: California

Counties: Marin

Length: 5miles

Trail end points: Smith Road to Smith Road

Trail surfaces: Dirt,Gravel

Trail category: Greenway/Non-RT

Trail activities: Horseback Riding,Mountain
Biking,Walking

Parking & Trail Access

Parking for the Gerbode Valley Loop is available at the Smith Road Trailhead.