The Railroad Trail is a 0.7-mile rail-trail in Bend, Oregon. The trails connects to the Shevlin Park Trails on its western end and the COCC Shevlin Park Trail, which follows Shevlin Park Road, on the eastern end.

Three Pines Park, on the eastern end of the trail, has a railroad "theme" which honors the trail's past. This eastern portion of the trail is paved and cuts through a nearby subdivision (notice: only the trail route is public, the neighborhood is private land) and the western section is comprised of a dirt-surface, and connects to many other trails in Shevlin Park.
