

2026

TrailLink Unlimited

Guides

McQueen's Island Trail

Georgia

McQueen's Island Trail

Georgia

Built on a stretch of the Savannah & Atlantic Railroad line, the 5.8-mile McQueen's Island Trail offers a salt-air excursion for nature signs list the native wildlife, including the eastern box turtle, American alligator, diamondback terrapin, bobcat, osprey, red-tailed hawk, and brown pelican. Be on the lookout for these, as well as frolicking dolphins in the river. Conveniently placed benches allow visitors to pause, take in the scenery, and enjoy a picnic.

This region boasts an interesting and extensive history, from its earliest inhabitants (Gaulle Indians, followed by early colonists) to the Revolutionary and Civil War battles fought on its soil. Cap your trek with a visit to the massive brick Fort Pulaski, captured in 1862 by Union troops using an experimental rifled cannon. If time permits, head over to Tybee Island, a few miles east of the trail. Tybee's 1732 lighthouse is Georgia's oldest and tallest.

Built on a stretch of the Savannah & Atlantic Railroad line, the 5.8-mile McQueen's Island Trail offers a salt-air excursion for nature lovers and history buffs alike. Built in 1887, the railroad carried passengers from Savannah to Tybee Island, a popular turn-of-the-century beach resort. A highway to the island was built in 1923, leading to the demise of the railroad.

About the Route

From its trailhead on the eastern outskirts of Savannah, the trail parallels the South Channel of the Savannah River, a major shipping route and entry point to the Port of Savannah. Short bridges spirit trail users across saltwater marshes. Cord grass, cabbage palms, yaupon holly, and coastal cedars line this beautiful trail, and interpretive

McQueen's Island Trail

Georgia

States: Georgia

Counties: Chatham

Length: 5.8miles

Trail end points: Fort Pulaski National Monument (Wilmington Island) to Western end of McQueen's Island at Bull River (Wilmington Island)

Trail surfaces: Gravel

Trail category: Rail-Trail

Trail activities: Mountain Biking, Walking

Parking & Trail Access

The McQueen's Island Trail runs between Fort Pulaski National Monument (Wilmington Island) and the western end of McQueen's Island at Bull River (Wilmington Island).

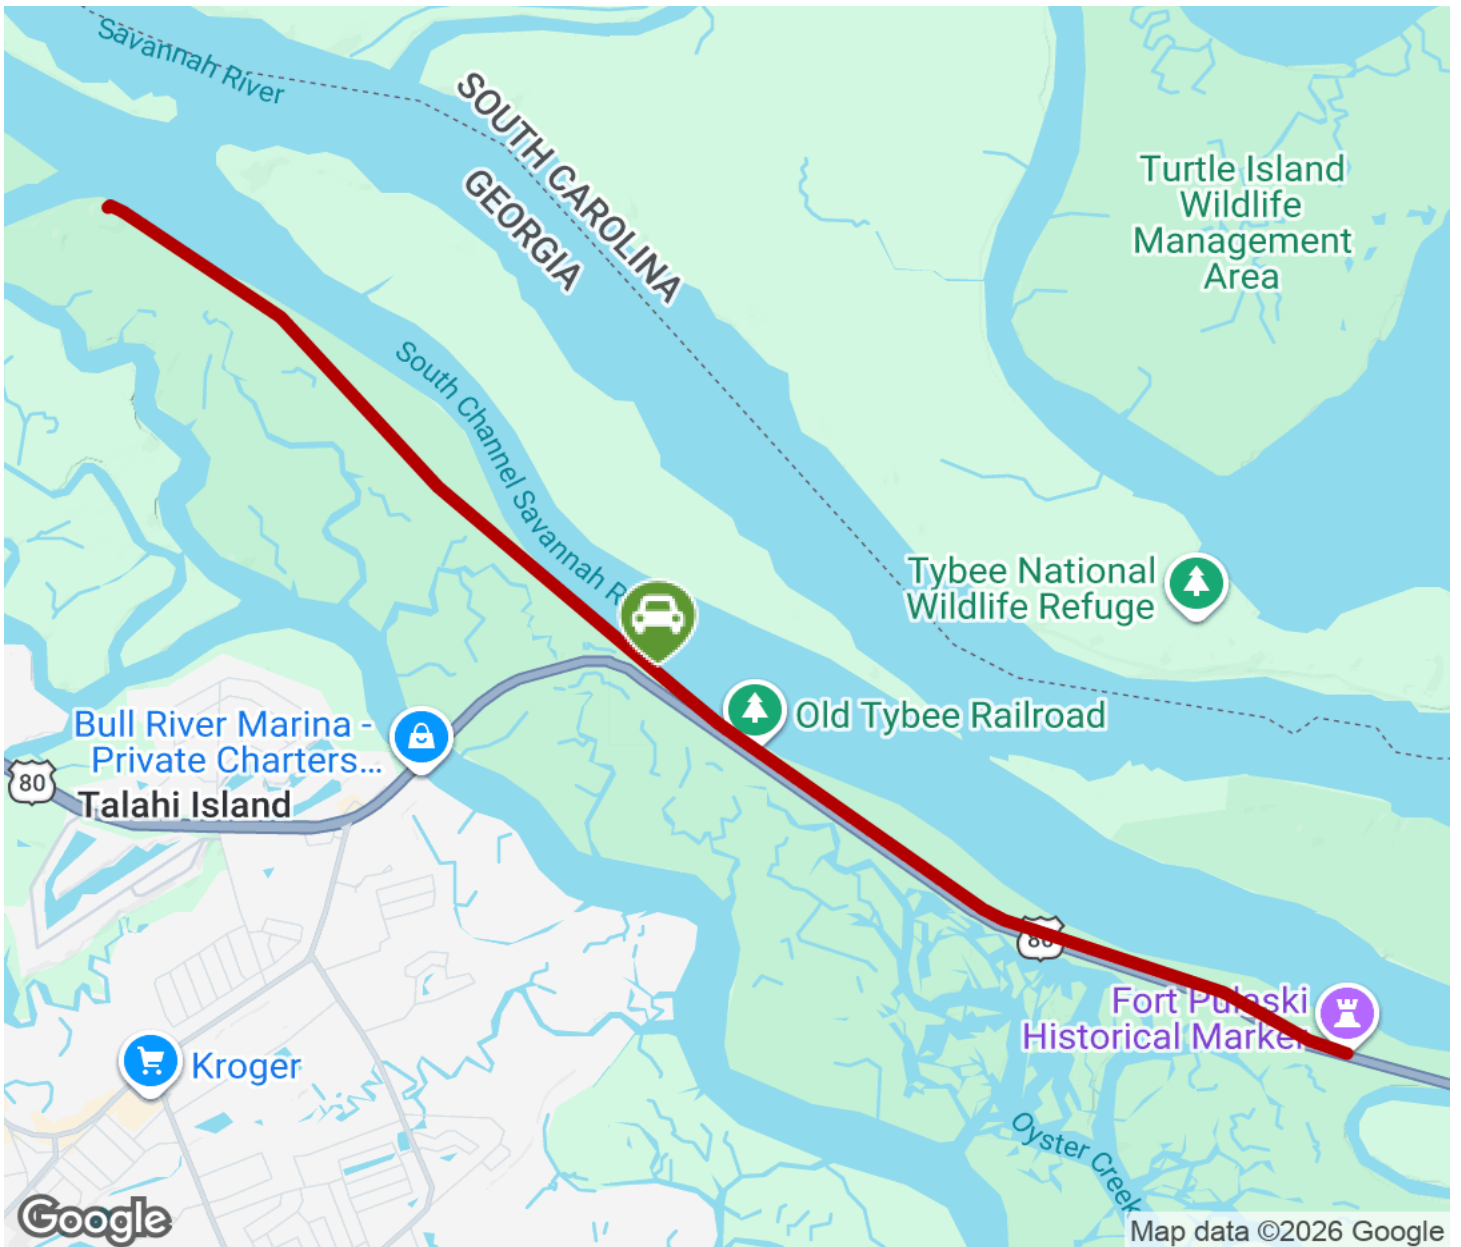

Parking is available at the Trail's Midpoint.

Please see TrailLink Map for detailed directions.

McQueen's Island Trail

Georgia

Trailhead

Restroom

Parking

Water Fountain

Tunnel

TrailLink
by Rails-to-Trails Conservancy

TrailLink.com