Connections

At its western end at the Idaho–Washington border, the trail connects to the Liberty Lake Stateline Trail. At Riverstone, the trail connects to the Prairie Trail.

The North Idaho Centennial Trail is a non-motorized, multiuse trail that meanders 23 miles between scenic Higgens Point State Park on Lake Coeur d'Alene (6 miles east of the city) and the Idaho–Washington border, where it joins the Liberty Lake Stateline Trail.

About the Route

The North Idaho Centennial Trail hugs the shores of Lake Coeur d'Alene and parts of the Spokane River, offering spectacular scenery along the way. The trail passes through the Lewis & Clark State College and North Idaho College campuses and follows well-marked back streets in Coeur d'Alene. There are plenty of rest areas, scenic views, and interpretative signs along the way. In 1999, Hillary Clinton designated the trail a Millennium Trail.
