Cadiz Railroad Trail

Kentucky

The Cadiz Railroad Trail runs for 2.5 miles between an old railroad depot on State route 139 and Fortner Drive at the east end of town.

The Cadiz Railroad Trail runs for 2.5 miles between an old railroad depot on State route 139 and Fortner Drive at the east end of town. The trail parallels Noel Drive and Lafayette Street, following an old corridor of the Cadiz Railroad. The rail once hauled tobacco from Cadiz to Gracey, where it joined the Illinois Central and Louisville & Nashville railroads.
