The Auburndale TECO Trail is a 7.3-mile paved trail running between Polk City and Auburndale.

About the Route

The Auburndale TECO Trail connects Polk City with Lake Myrtle in Auburndale, where it meets up with the General James A. Van Fleet Trail. At its northern end, the Polk City Trailhead (7683 Berkley Rd, Polk City) is shared with the Van Fleet Trail.

The trail is flat and invites walkers, joggers, cyclists, and inline skaters. At the southern end of the trail there is an observation area where you can watch bald eagles, which have built a nest nearby.
